The written notice must specify the job or position for which the employee wishes to be considered. If such a job or position then arises during the employee's vacation, the written notice will be considered an application. The written notice is only valid during the vacation period immediately following its delivery to the manager.

NEW CLASSIFICATION

When a new classification within the bargaining unit is established by Canadian Union Promotions Inc., Canadian Union Promotions Inc. shall determine the rate of pay for such new classification. Once the rate is determined, and then within seven (7) working days, Canadian Union Promotions Inc. shall advise the Union of the rate.

If the Union disagrees with the rate, it shall have the right to request a meeting with Canadian Union Promotions Inc. within ten (10) working days of receipt of notice of the projected rate. At such meeting, the parties will review the rate; Canadian Union Promotions Inc.'s rationale for establishing the rate and the reasons the Union disagrees with the rate. If the parties reach agreement, the agreement is effective as of the date on which Canadian Union Promotions Inc. gave the Union notice of the new rate.

When Canadian Union Promotions Inc. makes a substantial change in the job content of an existing classification which, in reality, causes such classification to become a new classification, the employer agrees to meet with the Union, if requested, to permit the Union to make representation with respect to the appropriate rate of pay.

If the parties are unable to reach an agreement, either party may refer the dispute to arbitration as provided in this agreement, provided the referral is made within fifteen (15) days of the meeting.

Any decision by the Board of Arbitration or Arbitrator, as the case may be, shall be based on the relationship established by comparison with the rates for other classifications in the bargaining unit having regard to the requirements of such classifications.

ARTICLE 13 - LAY-OFFS AND RECALLS

 - iv) In the event that an employee is laid off from the full-time bargaining unit, and provided that no other full-time bargaining unit positions are available for which the employee is qualified and able to perform, the full-time bargaining unit employee shall then be allowed to displace a part-time bargaining unit employee with less seniority provided that the employee is qualified and able to do the work available.

RECALL PROCEDURE

- A) An employee shall have opportunity of recall from a lay-off to an available opening, in order of seniority, provided s/he has the ability and qualifications to perform the work. In determining the ability and qualifications of an employee to perform the work, Canadian Union Promotions Inc. shall not act in an arbitrary manner.
- B) No new employees shall be hired until all those laid off have been given an opportunity to return to work and have failed to do so in accordance with the loss of seniority provision, or have been found unable to perform the work available.
- C) It is the responsibility of the employee who has been laid off to notify Canadian Union Promotions Inc. of his/her intention to return to work within seven (7) calendar days after being notified to do so by registered mail, (which notification shall be deemed to have been received on the second day of mailing), and to return to work within seven (7) calendar days after being notified.
